Triodos Future Generations Fund

Five investment themes key to advance child prosperity

Health and survival

Access to affordable healthy food and (health) care is key to child wellbeing.

Access to education

Education is an important factor contributing to equality and inclusion.

Protection from violence and exploitation

Child labour remains a problem. In addition children online are vulnerable to exploitation.

Safe and clean environment

Access to basic needs and a clean and safe environment is key to grow up.

Equal opportunity and inclusion

Challenges in equality and inclusion extend beyond birthplace. Though born equal, children face rapid inequality.
